

Returning from The Rainbow Bridge

Sample Interview Questions

1. Why is the phrase “animal family member” used instead of pets?
(I realize that it is explained a bit in the workbook...care to elaborate?)
2. From a farm in Colorado to living on the Iditarod (pronounced I-did- a-rod) Trail in Alaska...how has my life and lifestyle informed this workbook?
3. Returning from The Rainbow Bridge is part of a larger effort- 4 Animal Family Members. Tell me about this.
4. How does a business and leadership development consultant become an author for a book about losing an animal family member?
5. What are the advantages of visiting the website- ReturningfromTheRainbowBridge.com?
6. How many animal family members are there in the US today?
7. I have read that grief over the loss of an animal family member is just like losing a human family member. Is that correct?
8. There are several topics in the book that are striking- forgiving one’s self, should haves and regrets, to name a few. Why did I include these?
9. What inspired you to include Paws Points?
10. What is next?

